

(4) The name and address of the driver of the motor vehicle transporting said anthracite and the State motor vehicle registration number of said vehicle, and the date of loading of said vehicle.

(5) The name and address of the person or persons to whom said anthracite is to be delivered.

Every driver of a motor vehicle bringing anthracite into the State shall, before delivering the same, proceed to a scale operated by a licensed weighmaster. At the time of weighing every such driver shall file with the weighmaster a duplicate original of the required certificate of origin covering said anthracite. Such duplicate original certificate shall thereafter within one week, be filed with the Bureau of Mines by the weighmaster with whom said certificate was first filed. Duplicate certificates of origin so filed with the Bureau of Mines shall be open to public inspection during reasonable hours in accordance with the regulation of the Bureau.

Any person hauling, transporting, selling or delivering or causing directly or indirectly to be hauled, transported, sold or delivered any anthracite brought into the State of Maryland by motor vehicle, unaccompanied by a certificate of origin, or accompanied by a false, fraudulent or unauthorized certificate, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of the provisions of this section and shall be subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisonment for not more than six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

See notes to Secs. 58 and 61.

1937, ch. 349, sec. 46GG.

63. Any violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title except where a definite penalty is provided, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) or by imprisonment for not more than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

1937, ch. 349, sec. 2.

64. If any provision of this sub-title or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of the sub-title which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this sub-title and the application thereof to any particular person or circumstances are declared to be severable. It is particularly declared that if any provision of this sub-title or any application thereof shall be held to be invalid because of conflict with the Commerce Clause of the Constitution of the United States, the remaining provisions of the sub-title or the application of any provision of the sub-title to any person or circumstances not in conflict with said provision of the Constitution of the United States, shall be upheld.

See notes to Secs. 58 and 61.

State Board of Agriculture.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 47. 1924, ch. 420.

65. In addition to the powers of inspection, regulation and adjustment of scales, beams, weights and measures conferred by this Article upon the inspector appointed by the County Commissioners of the several counties, and by the Comptroller of Baltimore City, the State Board of Agriculture shall, through its officers, agents and employees, have the authority and
